or substitute computer readable form (CRF) copy of the "sequence listing"; and an initial or substitute paper copy of the "sequence listing," as well as an amendment directing its entry into the specification.

In response, applicants contend that the February 24, 2000 Notice to Comply was issued in error. In addition, in a April 13, 2000 telephone conference between Anthony Love of the Initial Patent Examination Division of the United States Patent and Trademark Office and Mr. Spencer Schneider of the undersigned attorney's office, Mr. Love stated that both the paper copy and computer readable copy of the sequence listing were received and that the February 24, 2000 Notice to Comply was issued in error. In addition, Mr. Love stated that a Notice of Withdrawal of the February 24, 2000 Notice to Comply would be issued.

If a telephone interview would be of assistance in advancing prosecution of the subject application, applicant's undersigned attorney invites the Examiner to telephone him at the number provided below.
